Hello, my name is: _____________________________________________
and I’m WANE 15’s meteorologist-in-training. I’m filling in for:

Nicholas Ferreri
Greg Shoup
Adam Solarczyk
Joe Strus

I would describe today’s weather as being ________________ and ________________.

The WANE Weather App tells me the current temperature is __________ degrees.

Get ready, though! A strong front is going to move through tomorrow and that means our temperature will (increase or decrease) by ___________ degrees!!

I think the day is going to be

Because of this front, you should go into your closet and get out your __________________________.

You’ll need them so you don’t __________________________ during the days ahead.

Now, if you don’t like __________________________ weather, don’t worry.

WANE 15 is the only TV station in Fort Wayne with a 10 Day Forecast and it tells me your favorite weather is coming our way soon.

Tune in to WANE 15 for your forecasts - because nobody does weather better!
